

UCLA

Department of Anthropology | Undergraduate Program, Luskin School of Public Affairs
Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies

present director BOOTS RILEY and his film

SORRY TO BOTHER YOU

q&a follows with:

H. SAMY ALIM, Professor of Anthropology and the David O. Sears Presidential Endowed Chair in the Social Sciences

GAYE THERESA JOHNSON, Associate Professor of Chicano Studies and African American Studies

BOOTS RILEY, Sorry to Bother You director, poet, rapper, screenwriter, songwriter, producer, public speaker and community organizer

KELLY LYTLE HERNANDEZ, Professor of History and African American Studies and Interim Director of the Ralph J. Bunche Center

ROBIN D. G. KELLEY, Gary B. Nash Endowed Chair in U.S. History and Professor of African American Studies

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 2018

6:30–8:30 P.M.: FILM

8:30–9:30 Q&A WITH BOOTS RILEY

LENART AUDITORIUM (A103B) IN THE FOWLER MUSEUM

308 Charles E. Young Drive North, Los Angeles 90095

Admission free, first come/first seated.